

Thomas Lausten New CEO of MOBOTIX AG

June 19, 2017

Since June 15, 2017, Thomas Lausten assumes responsibility as the new CEO of MOBOTIX. On March 27, 2017, the supervisory board has appointed Thomas Lausten as new Chief Executive Officer.

This "rounds-out" the management board composed of Dr. Oliver Gabel (CTO), Dr. Tristan Haage (CSO) and Klaus Kiener (CFO).

Lausten has both corporate and medium-sized business experience. He was responsible as Global Sales Director at Siemens, as well as the Managing Director of the Nordic region in ADI Global Distribution. As Vice President of EMEA, Lausten contributed significantly to the success of Milestone Systems. He is familiar with MOBOTIX due to his previous experience in this market.

"With Thomas Lausten, MOBOTIX was able to win a top manager from the video security industry," says Yuji Ichimura, Chairman of the Supervisory Board of MOBOTIX. "We are glad to have him on board as CEO of MOBOTIX".

Following Klaus Gesmann's resignation due to illness in February 2016, the company was lead by the three management members without a chairman. Effective from June 15, the management board consists of four members including Thomas Lausten.
