MOBOTIX Highlights Healthcare, Fire Detection, and OCR at ISC West 2025

Las Vegas, NV | April 2-4, 2025

el 02 de abril de 2025

MOBOTIX, a leading manufacturer of intelligent IP video systems, will be showcasing their latest innovations at this year's ISC West 2025, held at the Venetian Expo in Las Vegas. Stop by Booth #14115 to experience first-hand some of the most innovative advancements in safety, efficiency, and operational intelligence.

Attendees will have the chance to connect with our team and explore the robust portfolio of MOBOTIX solutions designed to address modern business and operational challenges. MOBOTIX's commitment to innovation and excellence will be on full display, emphasizing its role as a driving force in the global intelligent video market.

Featured Technologies at ISC West 2025:

- MOBOTIX ONE - Experience the newest platform to join the MOBOTIX lineup.
- Healthcare Applications - Enhance patient safety and workflows via tailored video solutions.
- Early Fire Detection - Reduce risks with intelligent monitoring for fire-prone environments.
- OCR Solutions - Elevate operational capabilities with innovative optical character recognition for logistics and parking management.

"We are thrilled to once again participate in ISC West, where industry leaders, partners, and professionals come together to shape the future of security," said Clint Simmons, Sales Director Americas at MOBOTIX. "This event provides valuable opportunities for us to engage with our community and share insights on how MOBOTIX solutions are making a difference worldwide."

MOBOTIX will also highlight key partnerships driving innovation in industry-leading solutions. Joining us at our booth will be our Alliance Partners, including IPTECHVIEW, System Surveyor, VAXTOR Technologies, and key Business Process Solutions S.A. de C.V. Learn how these collaborations are transforming the landscape of intelligent technologies.
